

Public Notice: Dogs

Attention - Dog Owners

The Town Office has received complaints from Town residents about people walking their dog(s) are allowing their dog(s) to defecate on the lawns of property owners especially between the former Queenstown Bank building and the Post Office.

This is a violation of the Queen Anne's County Animal Control Ordinance Chapter 9-21 "Discharge on property of others prohibited."

A. Private Property. The owner or custodian of an animal may not allow his or her animal or any animal under his or her care to urinate or defecate on the property of another without the consent of the owner of the property.

B. Public Property. The owner or custodian of an animal may not allow his or her animal or any animal under his or her care to defecate on public property unless the owner or custodian of the animal immediately thereafter removes and disposes of any and all waste in a sanitary manner. Animal Control may be reached at 410-758-2393.

With the warm weather season approaching, children will be playing outside and exposed to potential health and safety issues. Be a good neighbor and do the right thing. Clean up after your dog(s).
